

The White Horse Theatre

The White Horse Theatre comes to our school every year. This year they came on the 9th June, and they played „My Cousin Charles“ for the classes five and six.

In the play there were two cousins. One cousin was Charles. His father was ill, so his aunt invited him to visit them. The other cousin was Dotty. She lived with her mother and hated her cousin Charles. So she put bricks and custard in his bed. After that Charles arrived. Then they went outside and played football, but the ball flew over the fence and broke a window in the house of their neighbour, Mr Swother. Mr Swother hated children. The cousins tried to mend the broken window and then the adventure began...

I liked the play, because the play was interesting and funny and liked it because of the ending. It was: „Overcome by the craziness of the day, Dottie starts to dance and the others all join in.“

And that is the ending of this report too!
